

CTSA Program KL2 Scholar in the News:

Reducing Cancer Disparities in Latina Women:

- Developing culturally-targeted interventions to increase the uptake and quality of genetic counseling services for Latina women at-risk of hereditary cancers
- Developed the first Social Network Research Registry with Latina breast cancer survivors

“100% of Latina breast cancer survivors in the registry indicated their interest in future research” –Alejandra Hurtado de Mendoza, PhD, MA

