

LIVE VIRTUAL EVENT HOSTED BY
GEORGETOWN-HOWARD UNIVERSITIES CENTER FOR CLINICAL AND TRANSLATIONAL SCIENCE (GHUCCTS)

EMPOWERING PATIENTS TO HAVE A SAY IN TREATMENT: THYROID CANCER AND RADIOACTIVE IODINE THERAPY

Join us to learn how results from clinical research may help empower patients to have a say in treatment received for thyroid cancer. We will also discuss how to find a clinical trial for any health condition.

—
Guest speakers:

Jane Otado, PhD

Jacqueline Jonklaas, MD

Allison Moses

JUNE 22, 2021

6:00PM - 7:00PM EST

Zoom Registration Link

<http://bit.ly/ZoomGITVC>

Call in option: 646-558-8656 or 855-880-1246 (toll-free) Meeting ID: 988 1051 6711

GHUCCTS in the (Virtual) Community was created to promote clinical research awareness, diversity in research, and community engaged research through monthly virtual events.

Learn more at: <https://bit.ly/AboutGHUCCTS>

· GU · HU · MHRI · ORNL · DC VAMC ·

GHUCCTS

Georgetown-Howard Universities
Center for Clinical and Translational Science