

SAVE THE DATE

CLINICAL RESEARCH COORDINATOR'S WORKSHOP

This free workshop is designed for Clinical Research Professionals who are interested in enhancing their competency in the field of clinical research. Each module will consist of didactic material and hands-on training exercises. Topics covered will include the following: informed consent processes and updates, updates to ICH GCP and FDA guidance, best practices for source documentation, and how to prepare for a monitor visit.

Friday, September 18, 2026

8:30am - 3:00pm EST

Howard University

Louis Stokes Health Sciences Library

501 W. St NW, Washington, DC 20059

REGISTRATION HAS CLOSED

This workshop is open to all clinical research team members

This program is sponsored by Georgetown-Howard Universities Center for Clinical Translational Science (GHUCCTS) - Regulatory, Ethics, and Knowledge Support Group (REKS)