

GHUCCTS IRB

GEORGETOWN-HOWARD UNIVERSITIES CENTER FOR CLINICAL AND TRANSLATIONAL SCIENCE
(GHUCCTS) INSTITUTIONAL REVIEW BOARD

Are you conducting research at one or more GHUCCTS institutions? We can save you time!

WHAT IS GHUCCTS IRB AND WHY USE IT

- A single IRB that reviews collaborative human subject research for GHUCCTS institutions and investigators
- GHUCCTS IRB Membership includes representatives from each GHUCCTS institution
- GHUCCTS IRB allows for a single IRB review of studies from GHUCCTS institutions and meets the regulatory mandates for use of Single IRB review

WHAT IS GHUCCTS

- An NIH-funded consortium that provides resource support for investigators who conduct clinical and translational research at the following institutions:
 - Georgetown University
 - Howard University
 - MedStar Health
 - Washington DC Veterans Affairs Medical Center
- GHUCCTS is funded by an NIH/NCATS CTSA grant
- For more information, visit the website: <https://www.georgetownhowardctsa.org/>

HOW CAN GHUCCTS IRB STAFF ASSIST

- Deciding if your study would benefit from GHUCCTS IRB services
- Navigating access and use of GHUCCTS IRB
- Facilitating use of the electronic IRB platform

TO LEARN MORE, PLEASE CONTACT US THROUGH THE FOLLOWING:

Email: irboard@georgetown.edu

Phone Number: (202) 687-1506

Sign-up for Virtual Help Desk hours: <https://ora.georgetown.edu/irb/>

Website: <https://ora.georgetown.edu/irb/committees/ghuccts/>